Judge Lawlor as an Obstructionist.

It is necessary to reall a number of ep sodes in the history or extraordinary scene in the department of the San I rane seo Superior Court presided over by Jidge William P. Lawlor-a scene unparal and a Justice of the United States Supreme Court, of a judge on the tench or miscendult and obuse of indicial privilege. It was that merlent wines entired the Legislature to limit the power of judges to punish or on enpt

It is on five divisation the late municial election in San Linn cise which cane off in November 1909, William I Burns departed to the cast. He has never act raid to California. Shortly after Trances I Hence who was detected for District Attorney in the election severed his conjection of the Soul Lineiseo District At torney's office and left in a State

About December 1 -son e here veels after the sidden de partire et Burns-it developed teit Junes I. Gillagler, the immunits contract boodles and star witness for Hency and Lurus had disappeared. He had levanted several days before his disappear ance was made public ulthough two of Burns private detce ve corps had been specially detailed to witch him day and night. Os tensibly these de ectives were employed to project (ial aglier from injury and keep him und a such close smixell uce that he could not go anywhere or communicate with anybody without the knowledge of Burns and Hency

When Charles M. Lickert, who descated Heney entered upon Get Rid of Van Liew. his official duties as Di trict A torney in Tricary 1910, he found the District As orners of the stripped bare of the reports data and menoranda relating to the grat cases which had been collected by Burns and his agen's at enounce is cost to the city. The chief wit ness for the prosecution having allowise vanished Mr. Fickert vas without material or evidence to proceed against the indicted officials of the United Rulroads and so stated to the court. I ater it was ascertuned that Gallagler was in British Columbia beyond he reach or judicial proces. ### Judge Samuels' Record Good.

Judge George Samuels, who is a city justice of the peace and, the so called gratt prosecution c understand the sign ficance of the acting exofficio, as police judge of the city of Oaklaid, was ap pointed to the position (which he now holds by popular election) by Gov George C Pardee at the time of the passage of the act by the Legislature which created the judicial office. He had previously leled in the tudical listery of the State save perhaps the denunci- I cld the position of Deputy District Attorney, fulfilling its duties to ation by Steplen I Ticld afte wards Chier Justice of California the perfect satisfaction of his superior, and when the tenure of his appointment as city justice of the peace terminated the voters of Oak and showed their unqualified confidence in his ability, integrity and judicial fairness by electing him to serve another term by a hardsome majority

I ie teiri of service of Judge Samue's as an elected justice of the peace is drawing to a close and he is a candidate for the Republican normation at the coming primaries for re-election in November for a 10ther term of four years.

In popular estimation Judge Samuels stands today just where he -tool four years ago. Nothing has occurred during that period to shake public confidence in him. He has dispensed justice e-en-handed-He has given ample proof that he possesses the right kind of idicial temperament. He has been humane as well as honest in us adements and has failly earned the right not only of his party nomination as it's candidate but re election to the justic's bench by popular vote irrespective of party. He has presided over his court with dignity and administered the law with intelligence and fairness hands as a sequence has taken to writ and that is the type of a judic all officer which it behoo es the citi- ing broaded for the press blaming zons of Oakland to retain in their service

SAILOR IN IRONS AS "PEEPING TOM";

CHICAGO, Aug. 4. — During a special trip from Duluth to Gary, Ind., with five young women, relatives or officers of the United Status Steel Comparation, on board, the crew of the arc steamer Douglas Houghton mutined early yesterday off the Chicago harbor, it was learned today, and it took Capialn John Parks one hour with a revelver to quell the mutiny. It is said that the mutiny started because a cook hand had been locked in the ship's brig for peeking through a cabin window at the women passengers.

cabin window at the women passengers.

A two weeks' trip was all but over when the crew, led by Peter Peterson, freed the prisoner and mutined. The scillors later said they rebelled because extra pay had been withheld. The scillors were all discharged on reaching Gary.

The young women, Cecilla Kirk. Cleo McCrokly, Lodice Maxwell, Edith Anderson and Mrs. Louise Maxwell, fled to their cabins and remained there in terror until Captain Parke, with leveled weapon, had forced the less obstreperous sallors to lock up the ring leaders and clear away the broken furniture. Captain Parke says he will prefer charges against the prefer charges against
